My dear Sir

(138/926)

I have sent your letter to Mr Corbett, who will be much obliged by your prompt return, in tendering the Evidence I read some talk with the Editor of the Weekly Paper to-day, who receives letters from Canada which he had the kindness to let me look over.

I observed that your letters had duly appeared in the Globe & from there were copied in other papers. I have no doubt they are exciting much interest in Canada. Brown is at his old tricks. He has suppressed your name & gives the letters as from the "Special Correspondent" of the Globe. What other liberties he may have taken with them I do not know but from what he did with mine I imagine he could not be very fastidious in making alterations, if he needed them.

I wished them to show my letter to Roach & had a vague idea that the alterations might have been made by him; but from the careful suppression of every name but his own & mine I have little doubt that Mrs E. B. was the author of the improvements.

I got the Editor of the Weekly paper I have referred to (the News of Canada or some such name) to allow to take the numbers of the Globe with your letters home over Sunday on the condition that I would not allow them to go out of my possession. I shall have them here to-morrow Evening (Saturday). If you would like to see them ~~I can take~~ & would not mind coming this far, I should be at home the greater part of Sunday. We have recently moved & are not quite in regular order but can contrive to have an early dinner (about 1 o'clock), as I am engaged out in the afternoon & I shall be glad to have some talk over matters with you. Yours truly

If you cannot come I will try to call on Tuesday Evening.
