Dear Sir

Can you give me the address of the Secretary of the London Mission Society, who have mission stations in Kuruman and other places in South Africa. - I want to write to him to give him some information I have received by last mail, that will greatly injure the native tribes. And if you wish to know I will let you know also - but my

F. W. Chesson Esq

name must not appear, for if it is known out there, I shall be cut off from getting any more news of the Boer doings, as I am so well known amongst them.

If you can kindly give me this I shall feel much obliged.

I am glad to see Samuel is free again, but he will get no address from any quarter.

I trust Sir C Warren will drive those rascals out of the Bechuanaland,

Yours faithfully

Andrew A Biddison
