My dear Sir,

I send you the copy of a letter I wrote to the Duke of Newcastle not - that I imagine he will take the hint - I make, but - some good may be done
by letting him know
that the eyes of course,
at least, are upon
the judgment of the Government: - and the more doubtless the letter.

My

I could hardly I suppose expect a reply to my letter. It might be perhaps, also, be desired that he could summe in dependent manner
be influenced to ask for my brother's explanation of the Gov^l
charges - indeed libel
in case they appear

alone. The Government can hardly be capable of this,
hope: However strange
things sometimes
occur when a Political motion is to be attained: I see the
Dr. J. news by telegraph is that the war continues.
