Dear Mr Chesson C149/200

I feel as if I must thank you for the very nice letter you publ. in the "Standard" tho' you may think it un-pertinent of me to do so - It really comes from the patriotism of my heart. I did feel it so hard to know many would read it & believe the one sent by Mr Boardman - The letters that I have received this evening are rather more cheerily I think, & one of them shows up more of Grand's abominable proceedings at the time of Arbitration.

I also enclose you a letter I received 2 days ago from a Mr Anderson which gave me some anxiety. In fear he should do anything rash in the way of publishing letters which would irritate Grand. I wrote at once to him, & said if the letters he spoke of did use the words contained in his letter, I felt it w it would be much unwise to publish them, neither could I consider them strict truth, & I added how you particularly urged the necessity of our doing nothing to irritate Brand.

I gather from his letter altogether that he is given to be rather strong in his expressions, for I don't think Miss Foxwell could use the word murder in the way he does, tho her eccentricity is very undeniable.

I do regret to worry you with letters during your holiday.

Believe me
Yours sincerely
Elizabeth Whitfield

Do you think there would be any use in someone applying to Holland for their interest?

Friends of mine suggested it, I fancied Holland would have no power over the Boers now.
