Dear Mr Chesson

Another letter-

Mar just come from a piece which I enclose for you to see. I suppose Mr de Villiers thinks it will go badly with Samuel & he would write wrote to Lt Littlejohn Lacum.
Do you see that Gabriel may own counsel be of any use?
I cannot see it myself.
Miss Townsend tells me the will says when Samuel has been tried, "Finis" in 3 words for different sentences

She tells me to answer at the Telegraph Office to have the Message sent home, as the only gives a Post address Can you tell me which Office I must write to & where it is, for the telegram might be there now even - They brothers are both away -

In haste

Yours sincerely

Elizabeth Whitfield
