Dear Mr Cheever. (169/203

I have written to Archdeacon Glover upon your suggestion & he declines to write the letter for the Times.
That "Act of Submission" & ("Act of Forcibility" as Gabriel & could so aptly called it -) makes him feel Samuel so entirely in the wrong that he could not defend him.
Can you apply to Sir Lacy Whom you named to me.
It will not do to delay long saying something. He read all the important particulars written in a hurry collected from Shaks? leave would you not appeal to him for it? I don't say he would give it home, but he writes word that he gets byers with you a well known man would be best to write it. He is as much a stranger here as to you, but is said to be a very kind Old Man - did you see that Mrs Bowdellers letter in the Standard yesterday?

Sir to touch the Money if you have heard from Mr de Billers or Lt Wilford which he says - Excuse haste, I write to come & part with many thanks
Yours sincerely
E Litchfield
