My Dear Sir,
In spite of their great grief, Sir, Mr. Maubille, left here two days after the death of their daughter, & in the 1st of this month, a telegram was brought us the news of their safe arrival at the Cape on the 2^d. Our friend must be now very near Dordrechtland & he will have seen all the principal members of the Cape Government, as well as Sir Hercules Robinson. If any thing can effect a favourable turn of affairs among the natives it will be surely his arrival, for he enjoys universal respect & love. He is very quick & alert in correspondence, as you well know, & if we can do anything with some chance of success, he will soon give us notice of it. Believe me always Yours &c. E. Casalis
