My dear Mr. Chasson,

Many thanks for your last letter in which you communicated an account of the Jubilee Meeting of the A.P.S. I am glad to say, done a world of good during the absence here; and it cannot be denied that the era the jubilee of which we have been celebrating with marked enthusiasm has been what it is, in respect of the happiness and safety of the western races, because it has been rendered so by the unflinching and benevolent labours of the Society of which you are the worthy Secretary. Our people have arrived at such a stage in their ascent that they must pause to thank the Aborigines' Protection Society for their self-denying labours.

I shall look up the papers with your letter relating to Mr Irvine & send them on by next mail.

It was most gratifying to me to hear that
