Dear Sir

I have seen this day Mr. Southey who will call on you to-morrow and speak about my case. He knew my father well and remembers that I was the right full heir, but he could never make it out why Sir John Brand took Sepmarr's part, untill I told him that the former received several farms from the latter. Of course he does not think that Lord Percy can interfere. So I leave that gentleman entirely in your hands which will be a great support to me, because he is much respected in the Free States. - Thursday I go to Canterbury. - I cannot find

In Bartle Lee's address in the directory - no letter yet from Alderm. Meath.

With kind regards believe me dear Sir

Yours faithfully
